This musical score is for the hymn 'Would God I had died for thee'. It is written for a four-part vocal choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The score consists of six staves. The lyrics are: 'Would God I had died for thee, would God I had died for thee, would God I had died, would God I had died for thee, would God I had died, would God I had died for'. The music features various note values including quarter, eighth, and half notes, as well as rests. There are some melisma lines (indicated by a horizontal line) under the words 'for' and 'thee'.

The musical score is written for a single voice on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with some notes in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "died for thee, had died for thee, thee, would God I had died for thee, had died for thee, would God I had died for thee, would God I had died for thee, had died for thee, had died for thee, would God I had died for thee, thee, would God I had died for thee,". The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, half notes, and rests, along with a fermata over a note in the fifth measure.
